ARRANGE MEETINGS FOR SATURDAY, 24

May Arrange Series of Meetings in New High School Here.

Following the equipment of the agricultural department in the new high school building, it is hoped a series of practical meetings could be held for farmers and livestock breeders of Rock county. One of the most effective methods of farm instruction is the motion picture.

Through the state, the college of agriculture and the department of agriculture are working to obtain which show better than words or printing how farmers can protect their livestock and crops. Livestock sanitation is one important relation to the marketing problem, for on swine alone it is estimated that improper methods cause at least a $50,000,000 loss each year.

During the conference in Madison there was a government film shown on roundworms, which are causing great loss to market and breeding swine in Rock county.

Must Stop Losses
Disease is primarily the result of malnutrition and secondary of unsanitary conditions and surroundings. With swine it is not so much a question of the size of the litter farrowed, but how many of the litter thrive and gain on feed so they can produce a profit. Numerous carloads of hogs have been shipped out of Rock county for market weighing around 350 pounds that should have weighed around 450 and 475 pounds and nine times out of ten these stunted hogs lack weight because of worms. They consumed as much feed as much labor as hogs that put on flesh because of worm infection. This film, showing the cause and remedy for roundworms, can be obtained from Dr. Arthur Kilians, Wisconsin livestock commissioner, and there could be no better way of informing farmers of the proper sanitation than with this moving picture.

A series of meetings could be arranged that should prove of great value to farmers in Rock county. Every farmer is interested in reducing his loss in the farrowing pen. The methods advocated in the film are not theories, rather practical facts as determined after proper experiments and surveys.

"I hope we can serve the farmers in the new high school in some manner that will do good," declared L. E. Jackson.

PRODUCE INSTEAD OF BUYING, ADVICE TO KANSAS FARMER

Chicago—Government aid cannot bring success to the farmers of Kansas if they persist in going to the stores to buy instead of producing milk, butter and eggs, according to J. H. Tregge, executive manager of the National Association of Credit Men, in a statement issued Monday after a tour of Alabama, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Kansas. Mr. Tregge said the strangest thing he observed was the absence of barnyard noises in Kansas.

CATTLE TEST BILL TO BE RE-DRAFTED

The bill to amend the Wisconsin legislature by Senator Schumann, Jefferson county, relating to a $1,000,000 appropriation and a forced test on all cattle to eradicate tuberculosis, will be redrafted, and presented March 1, according to Dr. Arthur Kilians. The bill is to be changed so as not to affect the state's policy on area testing and accredited herds.

CHILDREN GIVE $100 TO ARMENIANS

School children of this city, in addition to the great amount of clothing they contributed to the relief of those Armenians suffering from starvation and cold, also contributed almost $100 in cash.

The high school contributed $41.41, which was sent late last week to Brooklyn, headquarters. Grades, according to the count made Monday morning of the large pile of nickels, pennies, dimes, quarters, nickels and a few bills, contributed $54.68, which was sent through a local bank.

The campaign for money and clothes was conducted last week as the week preceding, with speakers in all the schools.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

It is to be hoped that the legislature will not go off like a half cooked shot gun on the unemployment insurance bill which is now having its hearing in the senate committee. It is an untried experiment and while the students of economical questions are agreed that some measure of protection should be granted to the workman who through no fault of his own is thrown out of employment, yet it may well be given greater thought and study than has been attempted in relation to the Huber bill—a bill which it is understood was drawn up by Prof. John R. Commons, a theorist of no mean attainments, and yet having had no practical experience in handling any real question of employment or the conduct of any business.
 Neither the manufacturers and employers of labor, nor labor itself, have been consulted in the measure.

The "dole" system in England has increased rather than decreased unemployment and partial unemployment insurance has not been so organized as to make clear that the Huber bill covers thoroughly the solution of unemployment problems.

Then there is the difficulty over one state passing a measure which is not general. The consumer will pay the cost of unemployment insurance, no matter where it may be applied. It is an additional expense and must be absorbed somewhere. In competition with other manufacturers in other states where the charge is not applicable against the products, the Wisconsin manufacturer would suffer. He has a way out and that is to leave the state. Unemployment insurance is an experiment and it ought not to be done hastily either to the hurt of the employer or labor, or to the employer who with a less number of plants in operation, will certainly not be the gainer in this paternalistic law.

Spring music is beginning to sound. The automobile note is being signed off the dotted line.

CONFISCATION OF PROPERTY.

On Monday the assembly voted 24 to 30 to recommend to congress the passage of such legislation as will confiscate all inheritances in excess of a million dollars. If a man accumulates a million and a half the state will get the half by "several gradations of taxation." Mr. Mosely and Mr. Matheson voted against the resolution.

Perhaps, after all, what the Chicago Tribune wants is the freedom of the corker.

HE CHANGED A WORLD OF THOUGHT.

Copernicus has a birthday Monday. He has been dead for nearly 400 years but we still follow his teachings. He looked into the heavens and saw there for the first time the marvellous scheme of the universe, that the earth moved and the sun was a fixed body; that all the heretofore astronomical explanations, believed by the philosophers and teachers, were conjectural superstitions and a part of ignorant mysticism. The Polish monk changed the whole course of astronomical observation. He had no telescope. He saw only with his naked eye. He did not get off free; he was denounced as an heretic and a fool.
 But 450 years after his birth we still know that Copernicus discovered the truth. "The truth shall make you free," he said and so it has. We know the universe as he never did and when Galileo, with his organ pipe and two pieces of glass, looked into the heavens again, the world was to know that Copernicus had pioneered the people to a freedom from the Ptolemaic superstitions and ancient fallacies. The fascinating story of the world is this one of Copernicus the monk, Galileo and his telescope and Tycho Brahe, the red-headed Dane, on his island with the first observatory in the world, hunting the heavens for new stars and the marvellous scheme of the planets and their orbits.

"Take life as you find it," appears to be the motto of a number of people according to the police records.

Representative Voigt introduced a resolution of sympathy for Germany in the house. Representa-tative Knutson, of Minnesota, denounced the French and praised Germany. Then the storm broke and former service men had a few words to say. "I realize that when that American citizen, Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, reads the words of the gentleman of Minnesota, he and all the white livered, yellow streaked race like him, will

Agitate Immigration Law Changes

By FREDERICK J. HASKIN.
 Washington.—There is an old saying that wise men change their minds; fools, never. Also, it is said that there can be no progress without constantly changing policies and plans.
 If these statements are true, the American people are wise and progressive, for there probably is not a nation on the face of the earth that has so frequent and fundamental changes of mind. It would seem that it must be a good system, because certainly the American people have been the most progressive of any nation in history.
 No better example of the mutability of the American viewpoint could be cited than the right-about-face in the matter of immigration which has been executed by the employers.
 No one who reads the newspapers or listens to the conversation of men in the street and who has a memory has forgotten the terrible storm of prejudice and passion that raged in Congress and afterwards about the question of immigration.
 The hypocritical-American was anathema. He was the butt of all manner of satirical jokes. He was the enemy within our gates. He was the undesirable element which was tearing down our republic. The tradition that the United States had become a melting pot for the world was reputed and it was declared that the immigrant would not melt and therefore was an undesirable.
 The phrase "100 per cent American," was coined for the pitiful few of us who were described as standing with our backs to the wall, borne down by the weight of an unwanted tide of immigration.

Patriotic societies rose up in horror at the flood of immigration that had come in and that was coming in. The labor unions could be depended upon to endorse the movement against the immigrant.
 The result of this excitement was the Dillingham immigration law which placed a rigid restriction on the number of immigrants which could come to our shores each year. This administration of the law for a relatively brief period has brought about a change on the part of the American mind which is astonishing. To compare the fevered complaints against immigration which were heard only a few months ago with the statements now being made shows a surprising contrast.

Take, for instance, the following statement issued by the First National bank of Philadelphia:
 "The country is suffering from a deficient labor supply which will be difficult to make up so long as the influx of hard working aliens, whose services are badly needed in the United States, is restricted as it is by the present immigration laws.
 Honest workers, willing to give full value for wages received, represent an enormously valuable asset of the type most needed in such a world situation as ours today." Could there be a more complete change of mind? The foreigners who two or three years ago were being stigmatized as "enemy aliens," "hyphenated-Americans," "the enemy within our gates," and many other opprobrious terms, are called "honest workers," "hard working aliens," or, at least by the interests desiring a fresh supply of unskilled labor.
 This brief statement from the Philadelphia institution is merely typical of many such statements which are being made all over the country by interests needing more labor. It is true that the Quaker city, being one of the most thoroughly American cities in the country with a relatively small foreign population, took pride a short time ago in its freedom from the light of the foreign race. The statement today goes on to point out the advantages which such a city holds out to the "hard working alien."

All over the country, individuals, chambers of commerce, boards of trade, manufacturers associations, citizens associations, politicians and public officials are illustrating the frank change of mind and are pointing out the desirability of the "honest workers" and the urgent need of keeping down the immigration restrictions and let the aliens in. The natural result has been that bills have been presented in congress providing for relaxation of the law.

It is regarded as possible that some compromise will be worked out which will harmonize the two extremes and produce a workable and generally desirable immigration policy for the United States, although the commissioner general of immigration declared in a recent interview that in his judgment the present session of congress will leave the Dillingham 3 per cent law unchanged.
 Secretary of the Treasury Mellon recently declared that the immigration law is keeping out workers and that the rank of unskilled labor in the United States are in need of further recruiting. Under the other extreme of unrestricted immigration, he pointed out, large numbers of unproductive immigrants come to this country to exploit its magnificent opportunities. An average, moderate, middle course must be adopted in his opinion.

Such a course would provide for the admission of working producing aliens; but not for the admission of traders and non-producers who merely make a living by buying and selling the commodities which other persons make. The middleman who, many economists aver, is the chief contributor to the high cost of living is created out of this class of traders.

Some difficulties stand in the way of such a discriminating immigration law. The United States is signatory to a number of treaties which contain most-favored-nation clauses. This phrase means that the United States will accord to the nation with which it is making a treaty the same privileges and rights which it accords to the most favored nation. A treaty containing such a clause, therefore, would prevent granting favor admission to the citizens of one country than to those of another which also had similar treaty relations.
 Thus, if the United States had most-favored-nation clause treaties with both Italy and Greece, it could not let in freely the Italian workers without also letting in freely the people of Greece who are chiefly traders.

These obstacles are not impossible to overcome and, therefore, it is expected that in the course of a few years congress will work out a practical immigration law which will meet its needs.
 At present, our laws keep out immigrants who have certain classes of diseases or infirmities or who are without funds. The same doctrine might be extended by careful negotiation with foreign countries to separate the immigrants which are regarded as economically desirable from those who are not so regarded.

applaud and say the American congress is with us now," said Congressman Buttrick, of North Carolina. "The same breed will applaud vociferously when they read the resolution of the gentleman from Wisconsin. (Voigt.) Representative Lineberger accused Knutson of unfurling the German Imperial standard on the floor of the house. Apparently there are a few Americans left in congress.

We know now where the expression "Tut! Tut!" hails from. The land of Pharaoh, of course.

Some of the people protesting loudest against legislation in Madison were among those who for personal revenges and to feed a nasty disposition to get even, voted for the administration and members of the legislature who are receiving condemnation for radical measures. It is hard to work one's self into a high state of pity for these persons.

One of the reasons why Peter Bergman, who died a few days ago, worth a million, all of which he made as a farmer, was still worth a million at the time of his death, was his persistent refusal to invest in blue sky stocks and get-rich-quick games. Others did and lost. Peter Bergman stuck to the farm and safe investments.

JUST FOLKS

 MEMORY.
 These are the things death cannot take away:
 The voice of women which was ours to know; Though now those cheeks where roses used to blow
 And those pure lips where smiles were wont to play.
 Bright realms as lovely as the skies of May,
 Lie as a garden blanketed with snow.
 Until the day we, too, must turn to gray.
 Unchanged and constant still, but beauty slain, No more the tears nor pain nor memory stay.
 Can harm her now our own memories hall, She that we loved, so beautiful and fair, Shall come to us still radiant, when we call,
 From all life's dangers now secure she lies, Lovely she was, and lovely she shall be.

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

By ROY K. MOULTON.
 All this fuss about the Encyclopedia Britannica seems to be centered about the theory that it is a damned sight more Britannica than it is encyclopedia.

It is strange how a man's stenographer leaves a word now and then, when his wife never does.

One New York man must pay $50 a week alimony out of his $35 salary, which seems only fair to the wife, with the cost of everything so high.

Seven persons will be appointed in Washington to taste liquor. It might be well to summon the members of one of the "poison squads" that used to hold forth in Chicago.

The per capita consumption of eggs in this country is one-half an egg a day. So now, when you eat a whole egg, you know that somebody else has to do without any at all.

Italian committed suicide because he couldn't learn to understand the New York language. If that became general the city would soon be depopulated.

One of the eastern universities is looking for a new president. Well, Henry Ford isn't so very busy just now.

Who's Who Today

"BIG BILL" JARRETT.
 Hawaii sends to Washington as its new delegate to the U. S. congress one of the most interesting figures on the islands. He is William
 "Big Bill" Jarrett.
 Jarrett drew international attention during his service as territorial high sheriff when one day he made himself a viceroy of Aahu prison. When Jarrett took over the prison office, the water, care, the dark cell, the prison boot, the food, the prison life, the punishment were in vogue.
 Jarrett eliminated these. He augmented humanitarian ideas and his kindness and good nature made him a friend and the praise of the intelligent islander.
 Proper food and medical attention, the prisoners before his time, were provided. Jarrett ran the prison at a saving to the government while conducting these changes.

Many of the prisoners work on the city streets and in the parks during the day. Under previous regimes failure to return to the prison at night meant hours of torture for the tardy ones. Jarrett put the prisoners on their honor and they do not fail to return at time he found the prison gate locked. The only penalty he inflicted was the loss of his supper and the use of his dirty bed for the night.
 Jarrett is the fourth man to represent the island possessions at congress.

OPINIONS OF OTHERS

Germany Does Not Intend to Pay.
 France—and we should envy her the fact clearly—does not want Germany to make payment. She wants Germany to make money, but she wants to keep that money for herself, in such a way as to drain and enfeeble her military resources and in the process to maintain her military frontier far in advance of French soil. It is for this reason that she seeks upon apparently all fronts to prevent Germany from defaulting.
 But before we, in our safe isolation, can determine for ourselves whether this is a just or unjust procedure, we should in fairness look at the situation as it appears to France.
 Germany is in a position which is precisely the same position as in 1870, and her policy is dominated by precisely the same purpose, as then—to bluff her temporarily victorious adversary to pay as little as possible and to prepare the way for a future war. Germany is in a truly wonderful position, financial and political, and she has conspicuously succeeded. She did indeed pay the reparations demanded of her; but at the end of 1921, but it has been computed by American statisticians that the purchase price of the worthless marks sold to the United States alone considerably exceeds the total reparations she has hitherto paid. There are millions of holders of marks ready to cry "Be gentle with Germany!" in the hope that one day German currency may be stabilized at something like its former value.

In this hope they are deluded. When the foreign speculator definitely ceases to buy, the mark will be stabilized at such an infinitesimal fraction of its former value that it will be of little use to Germany. Germany will be free from that incubus under which the other nations are groaning, for only external debts are those due to her enemies and the determination to pay them.
 She has in fact, so judged her finances that she cannot pay in anything which is any use to them.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Personal Health Service

WHY TEETH DECEAY
 That film or mucus coating by means of alkalies, acids or soap, as a general rule. It may be advisable in certain individual pathological cases.
 "Tooth decay" because the diet is faulty. The food is poor in vitamins, it lacks calcium (lime) salts (which are too thoroughly removed from foods in process of "manufacture").
 Another curious fact recently noted by scientific workers is that the system can better appropriate its calcium and phosphorus quota, even from a defective diet, if the body receives plenty of sunlight.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
 "If you had a gastric or duodenal ulcer what would you do?" (L. B. E.) Answer.—Consult a physician.
 "Checking up on Father." I am 13 years old and was taken out of school last winter because I was not well. Now father says I should go to school at 8:30 o'clock and get up at 7 o'clock and drink a quart of milk a day. I am five feet three and weigh 121 pounds. We have put the proposition up to you to decide. (Ruth the Evergreen.)

Answer.—Of course I do not know what your father wants to do or may have said, but any general principles should concern with father. Although 10 hours of sleep may be sufficient for the average young person.

Seventeen Girls With Colds.
 There are 17 of us girls working in a large office. We have a cold, cough and off by coated tongue. We are all interested to know the reason and what to do about it. (Miss M. D.)

Answer.—Perhaps the diet is too refined and too easily digested. Most persons who do not make it a point to include considerable roughage in their food, are subject to constipation. Insufficient mastication favors the accumulation of a coating of fur on the tongue. The greater the quantity of food, the more the mastication, the less the accumulation of a coating. Gum chewing, as all pointed to add, isn't of any use.

Do you think that because I can eat

The Tapeworm Myth.
 I can eat most anything at any time during the day and because I weigh 185 pounds that I have a tapeworm? (Mrs. M. A.) I have a tapeworm? (Mrs. M. A.)

Answer.—No, but it is a tapeworm myth.
 The popular myth which it might be a good idea for you to keep a few of them and eat them. They are not dangerous and life-shortening effects of overeating. Persons who really have tapeworms are usually very thin and health, as a rule, not as they are more voracious eaters than persons who have no tapeworms. The relation with tapeworms is an accident. It happens to anybody who eats raw or partly cooked beef or pork.

ASK US
 HOROSCOPE
 TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1923 Astrologers read this as an information for the day.
 Uranus are all in malefic aspect.
 During this rule it is well to avoid any departure from routine activities, postponing every sort of initiative until more kindly stars have the dominancy.

This day is especially unfavorable for labor and presages dissatisfaction in the ranks of industry as well as real suffering among the poor.
 Uranus and Mars are in conjunction and guard their lands with hostile manner, at this time when the weather, even in mild zones, may be exceedingly changeable.

Mars is in a place that appears to indicate a major catastrophe, of at least, much war-consciousness, of dread.

The signs declare that the United States has the power to become the place of peace, of order, of hope, when there is a nearness of danger.
 Uranus is in an aspect read as presaging much variety of opinion on public questions in the United States.
 Bitter animosities probably will appear in legislative bodies.

The culmination of Mars and Uranus in the east of Europe gives little hope of peace in that region in Russia and Turkey is foretold by astrologers.

Much excitement will stir London before the advance of springtime.
 Political conditions will be much disturbed. A mysterious crime of international interest will be committed in the great metropolis.

Growth of interest in occultism will be marked and new teachers will gain followings at this time and the seers find ill omen in this fact which indicates some sort of clash in "high men" and their "low" ones.

Secret plots that extend to all parts of the United States will menace the people in certain large cities; astrologers foretell.

The spread of dangerous propaganda will reach groups in which race antagonisms will be aroused, and if the stars are read aright, life as well as property will be menaced before midsummer.

Persons whose birthdate is 19 should avoid any changes in the coming year and should safeguard the health.
 Business matters should be carefully watched.

Children born on this day probably will be endowed with twofold characteristics: bluntness of the intellect and the practical. Women belonging to the sign of Pisces usually are excellent housekeepers.

A Free Booklet on the Care of the Teeth

Nothing is more important to the health than proper care of the teeth.
 Medical science has discovered that many illnesses such as rheumatism, neuritis, headaches, tooth ache, heart trouble, abscesses, skin troubles, boils and nervousness can be cured by proper teeth.
 Therefore, each one of us, from childhood on, should know just how to care for the teeth for the lifetime work before them.

All this knowledge is contained in a booklet on the care of the teeth by the Metropolitan Life Insurance company and offered for free distribution by this information bureau.

DEMOCRATS CALL FOR MEET, FEB. 24

State Must Turn Either to Old Democracy or Socialism, Leaders Declare.

"BY ASSOCIATED PRESS."
 Madison.—Sounding the plea that Wisconsin must either "turn to the old democracy or to socialism," the democratic party in the state today called a gathering of its political adherents to be held in Milwaukee, Feb. 24.

"Now is the moment, now the hour, now the day, when democrats should come to the defense of the state, a special committee composed of Thomas M. Kearney, Martin J.
 Lueck, Joseph Martin, Hubert O.
 Wolfe and H. A. Muehlenpford, declared in its call to democracy. "The time is here when the party must either admit its impotency or assert its power," the committee added.

"Citizens in Wisconsin Democrats are asked whether they shall turn away from the ideals of the fathers of the republic and contribute, through indifference, to the continuation of the conditions of absolute political chaos now existing in this state."

"Shall democrats join the weakens of business, the destroyers of peaceful relations, the teachers of hatred and class prejudices, or shall they lend the fullest measure of power to protect the interests of the state, to protect its magnificent industries, its farms, its wage earners, its homes, all that is dear to the people, from a total destruction through the maladministration of the state government, the call was issued.

"If the democrats of Wisconsin cannot save the state from these threatening dangers," it adds, "then the state stands defenseless. Those in power are killing every interest by reckless, unnecessary, extravagant taxation; by imposing government by boards, bureaus and commissions which give political employment for political purposes to a great army of unnecessary time servers.

The republican party, as represented on the platform by the mischanced element, is now in power, is helpless. The state must turn to the old democracy or turn to socialism. It is inevitable. The time is here now—appealing our patriotism, to our loyalty,

MONDAY'S RESULTS:

Madison.—In a slashing game of basketball, Wisconsin Monday night defeated Michigan, 16 to 11, taking its second game from the Wolverines and increasing its lead in the western conference, second place by half a game.

It was an unusually fought battle, distinguished by dazzling floor work and remarkable shooting on the part of Wisconsin from long distances. The Badgers caught eight baskets to three for their opponents. Michigan scored five times from free throws while Wisconsin missed its three attempts.

Close guarding by Williams and Tebell for Wisconsin and by Cappen and Papper for Michigan held down the score and forced both teams to resort to foul shots. Cappen and Gibson each scored three field goals for the Badgers, with Williams and Spooner recording one each. Kipke, Kly and Papper made Michigan's scores.

The first half ended 8 to 3 in favor of Wisconsin. A lead was held by the Badgers throughout.

Busy Man's Sport Page

By FRANK SINCLAIR

VALUE of publicity to an athlete team is soundly by L. S. Connor, Cleveland. It is considered of enough importance that "Spalding's" include in their book "How to Play Basketball." Connor says: "For the interest of the man, keep score and every little while post a record of the work of the players. This, together with good report of the games, will keep the spirit away up where it belongs. Make it a point to report your own games. In doing this try to be fair and give credit where it is due. It is a good credit for what he did. Don't fail to have the game in the papers."

THERE is some further "info" of value to sports men. "The manager should be a wide-awake hustler who is ready to drop whatever he has if he can find something better to do. He should be proud of the game which he represents and whatever step he takes should be in the direction of putting it on a higher plane and a more solid foundation."

ON THE MATTER of visiting teams, Connor declares: "When a team comes to your floor, show the players that you are glad to meet them. Give them the heartiest welcome that you can extend. It is not only a matter of courtesy, but it is a matter of business. Now, basketball is too good a game for that. No team should ever leave the floor claiming to be a loser. The best that can be extended to them is none too good. Fair treatment is always a good investment."

COMMENTING upon independent teams, Connor makes plain that managers must be on their guard to assure evenly matched teams, for if there is any glory in it, it is in beating the best there is. "Drop as near as possible all the bad teams," he urges, "and stick to the ones that live, and then to the ones that die. In time this will bring good basketball."

SPEAKING of leagues, he says: "It is well for managers to get together and form a league. Then all of the teams will play to the same standard, be nearer equal in strength, have the same object in mind and will be governed by the same board. This means more that it seems to at first glance, for when all are made to observe the same rules and agree to abide by them good results are sure to follow."

Tourney Boosters Ask for Support

When bowlers and citizens of Janesville meet at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday at 8 p. m. to start plans for handling the 1924 Wisconsin state pin meet, which has been awarded this city, one of the most and most enthusiastic groups, the tourney boosters, is expected to be on hand. The meeting is the most important session of sportsmen to be held here this season. Every man interested in bowling, and also in making this $100,000 event a supreme success, should be on hand, says Dr. R. F. Richardson, Janesville member of the executive board of the state association.

It will be the duty of the meeting to recommend to the state association the present in order to choose the men best fitted for these positions.

The meeting, it is explained, is not only for bowlers. Every person is asked to attend. It has been called by Judge Charles J. Pfend, president of the Janesville Bowling association.

Thursday night work will be started to form the Janesville Tourney association to handle the details of preliminary arrangements for the tourney. With the assistance of the city, the association will require the cooperation of every citizen, business house and organization.

Big Fish Meeting on Tuesday Night

More than usual interest is being manifested in the 1923-24 chapter meeting to be held at city hall on North Jackson street at 8 p. m. Tuesday. The coming address of E. O. Webster of the division of fishery of the state conservation commission is causing speculation as to what advice the expert will give on the carp situation in southern Wisconsin.

At a recent meeting of the fishermen's club, definite decision was made to go after the extinction of carp by opening season in July. At present, the local fishery is in a closed season on fishing.

Fishermen are stirred up in this section because of the scarcity of carp and the anglers are aroused because the once famous duck grounds in this territory are fast disappearing. Tuesday's meeting, called by Judge Charles J. Pfend, president of the local fish club, will have a direct bearing on conditions.

Lake Geneva—Weather conditions have delayed the ice boat competition from getting to Lake Geneva for the ice boat carnival. Fully 20 ice boats are on hand for the starting of the races Tuesday afternoon. Races from Oshkosh are due Tuesday night. Wednesday it is expected the races will be on for the rest of the week, and interspersed with the boat races, will come off a series of races Wednesday, when all the fast horses participating in the recent trotting races on the ice, will participate. Thursday, there will be skating matches with high schools from Chicago, Milwaukee and several of the smaller towns in southern Wisconsin, together with local schools. On Saturday will be staged an innovation, the first baseball and basketball game ever played on the ice here.
